

i2 ANNUAL USERGROUP CONFERENCE 2009

Management Track Agenda

*Monday 15 June
Beaumont House
Old Windsor*

- 13.00 Lunch
-
- 14.00 Julian Midwinter, VP Sales, i2 Limited - Open and Welcome; Scene Setting
-
- 14.15 Jimmy Cockerton, Project INSIGHT Technical Architect - Northamptonshire Police
An overview of the collaborative project between five East Midlands forces to establish a regional information system that supports the integration of ANPR and other police data sources to provide an intelligence analysis and investigation capability to assist in the targeting of all levels of crime.
-
- 15.00 Comfort break
-
- 15.15 Neil Smith, Investigative Researcher - The Value of Open Source Investigations
This presentation will cover how open source intelligence has increasing value for investigative purposes due to the rapid take up of online networking and other communications. Ideas will be developed ranging from basic searches to identifying useful databases and then drawing inferences from this intelligence.
-
- 15.45 i2 Future Product Discussion
An open forum for delegates to discuss future requirements for analysis products featuring guests speakers from the field.
-
- 16.30 Comfort break
-
- 16.45 ACC Nick Gargan, ACPO Lead on Intelligence - Thames Valley Police
-
- 17.15 Wrap-up
-
- 17.30 Close of day