

1 Day OSINT Awareness

Taken from our full 4 day course on Using The Internet As an Investigative Tool, which is recognised by the University of Portsmouth's Institute of Criminal Justice Studies, this 1 day course is aimed at giving those within law enforcement & investigations the understanding and practical techniques that they need to fully use the increasingly useful tool that is the internet.

Whatever your need for information, the internet is a really useful investigative tool.

This course is aimed at introducing you to some of the techniques to utilise it, from effective searching to understand Social Networking sites and Databases.
